Announcements

Get inspired to cooperate with researchers in Germany, Austria and Switzerland

Attaché at Innovation Center Denmark, Munich, Nikolaj Helm-Petersen, visits AU on 29-30 March. During his visit he will hold a meeting for young researchers to inspire them to cooperate with researchers in Germany, Austria and Switzerland and to make use of the services that are offered by Innovation Center Denmark in Munich. The meeting will take place on 29 March at 3pm in Meeting Room 1 at the International Centre, Høegh-Guldbergs Gade 4, 8000 Aarhus C. You may also arrange a personal meeting with Nikolaj Helm-Petersen by contacting the International Centre: ug@adm.au.dk. “How to write successful grants”

The Research Support Office has organised a workshop on “How to write successful grants”. The workshop will be held on March 13 and 14 and again on June 12, 13 and 14. The workshop is aimed at researchers with little or no experience within grant writing. The workshop on March 13 and 14 will be in Danish, and on June 14 the workshop will be in English. Non-Danish speaking researchers will have first priority for the workshop on June 14. Deadline for registration is March 8 and June 6. For more information, see:

<http://www.au.dk/forskningsstoetteenheden/arrangementer/workshop/>. The workshop will be repeated during autumn 2012.

AU HR courses for lecturers on teaching in English

AU HR offers two courses for lecturers who would like to improve their English skills:

Course No. 10: Teaching in English

Course No. 11: Presentation technique in English

Deadline for registration is 30 March.

Course for students with Danish as their second language

The Counselling and Support Centre at AU offers a course on Danish academic communication and dissemination for students with Danish as their second language. Lecturers are urged to recommend the course to students who have study-related difficulties with communicating in Danish or to advise these students to contact the Counselling and Support Centre (www.dpu.dk/rsc):

Funds for competence development

Employees at AU may now apply for funds for competence development (courses, education, etc.) from the Fund of Competence. Deadline for application is 23 March. For more information about the application procedure, see the HR website.

PURE Newsletter

In future, information about PURE will be sent out via a newsletter instead of email lists. This means that you should subscribe to the newsletter if you would like to keep receiving information about PURE. You have a choice as to which type of information the newsletter that you receive should include. The categories are as follows:

- All information
- Operation
- Updates
- Master data – persons
- Information for super users
- Public sector consultancy indicator (MRI)
- The bibliometric research indicator (BFI)

The newsletter will mainly be of a practical nature and will be sent out when new information is available, not at a regular frequency. Subscribe to the PURE Newsletter via this link:

Approval of expenses below DKK 1,000

To get approval of expenses below 1,000 DKK (for e.g. books, travelling etc.), you must fill in a form which can be found here: <http://econ.medarbejdere.au.dk/services/forms/> or via <http://econ.medarbejdere.au.dk/> (under Quick links). Fill in the form and press send. When you receive a return e-mail from Margit Sommer, it means that your application has been approved. If your application is rejected (e.g. if you have spent too much money), Margit Sommer will send you an e-mail explaining why your application has been rejected.

New location of the Studies Administration

As from 1 March, the Studies Administration and the Student Counsellors will be at new locations at 8000c. The Studies Administration will move to building 1328, offices 112 and 120, and the Student Counsellors will be in 1328, office 132.

Economics books are moving to Fuglesangs Allé

On 19 March the collection of economics books at the Library of Social Sciences at Bartholins Allé will be moved to a storage room at Fuglesangs Allé. It will be possible to order books from the storage room, and when returned these books will be placed on open shelves at the BS Library at Fuglesangs Allé. Books for the reading rooms will be placed in the reading rooms at Fuglesangs Allé. For the moment, journals and series will stay at the Library of Social Sciences at Bartholins Allé, and the collection of old statistics book in the cellar of building 1322 will also remain there for now. In connection with the big move to Fuglesangs Allé in August, the printed journals and the collection of semester books will also be moved. Contact Gertrud S. Thomsen for further information: e-mail: gst@sam.au.dk or tel.: 87 15 22 17.

Colophon

ECON News is issued every second week, on Mondays.

Next issue: Monday 19 March

Deadline for input: Thursday 15 March at 12. E-mail: bhoejklint@econ.au.dk

ECON News is the bi-weekly internal newsletter for Department of Economics and Business. ECON News has the purpose of gathering overall information in order to minimize the current flow of information. Urgent information will still be circulated now and then by use of e-mails.

ECON News will contain information related to overall news not provided by the Departmental News (written by Allan, Head of department). To attain the goal of having a comprehensive information platform, I need your ideas and input. So please provide me with info on new grants etc. Please send me an e-mail: bhoejklint@econ.au.dk
