

The Oecon Award 2012

Prize to be awarded by Oeconforeningen to a newly graduated cand.oecon. 2012

The prize will be awarded to a newly graduated cand.oecon. who has contributed to the creation of an inspiring and strong study environment and influenced the studies in a positive way considering academic as well as social initiatives.

Besides being a fine student, the award winner is expected to be active within the study environment, e.g. Økonomisk Forening, student policy, Aiesec, Ø, establishing a new association or other sort of commitment at the Department of Economics and Business. Furthermore, the award winner is expected to show academic involvement and must be considered a fine ambassador for the competences of a cand.oecon.

The prize is for DKK. 15,000

Fellow students as well as faculty may nominate candidates. In particular, I urge MSc thesis advisors to think about graduates from the summer of 2011 until now (including students whose theses may currently be under review).

Please hand in your reasoned recommendation in a sealed envelope to Birgitte Højklint Nielsen at Department of Economics and Business, Fuglesangs Allé 4, bldg. M, office 338, 8210 Aarhus V no later than 30 June 2012.

The committee chosen to evaluate the recommendations is:

Managing director Morten Amtrup, chairman

Professor Michael Svarer

Head of Client Relationship Management & Deputy Head of Merchant Banking at SEB Mark Luscombe

Deputy General Manager Susanne Møllegaard

Allan Würtz
Head of Department