

Conference in Memory of Dale T Mortensen
October 21, 2014

Department of Economics and Business, Aarhus University and Department of Economics, Northwestern University

On January 9, 2014 Dale T Mortensen passed away. He was Board of Trustees Professor of Economics at Northwestern University and since 2006 maintained a joint affiliation at Aarhus University. In 2010, Dale T. Mortensen was awarded the Nobel Prize in Economic Sciences together with Peter Diamond and Christopher Pissarides, for their analysis of markets with search frictions. Dale has been a great inspiration for researchers around the world for decades, and at this time we want to honor him.

Cycles, Adjustment and Policy (CAP), Aarhus University is organizing a Conference in Memory of Dale T. Mortensen, in collaboration with Centre for International Macroeconomics (CIM), Northwestern University.

The conference will take place on Tuesday, October 21, 2014, 09:00-16:30.

The venue is:

Aarhus Institute of Advanced Studies, Aarhus University, Høegh-Guldbergs Gade 6B, DK-8000 Aarhus C, Denmark.
