7 DECEMBER 2015

GRANT FROM THE CARLSBERG FOUNDATION TO JONAS MAIBOM

Research Assistant Jonas Maibom has received DKK 1.4 million from the Carlsberg Foundation for his postdoc project.

The aim of the project is to combine empirical and structural labour supply models to answer important policy questions. The first project will quantify and assess how the current level of UI balances the gain from social insurance with costs generated by suboptimal individual behavior. The second project will quantify the central mechanisms behind career and wage effects associated with mothers spending time out of the labour market and assess the cost of family friendly policies in terms of fore-gone opportunities in the labour market for mothers.

Congratulations, Jonas!

RESULTS OF THE AU ELECTION

The results of the AU Election 2015, which was held on 23-26 November, are now available.

From the Department, Assistant Professor Anders Laugesen was elected for the Programme Study Board for Economics and Management, and Study and Research Supporter Karin Vinding was elected TAP observer for the Academic Council.

BETINA SØRENSEN RETURNING FROM MATERNITY LEAVE

Study and Research Supporter Betina Sørensen will be back at the Department after her maternity leave on 17 December.

To begin with Betina will be in charge of the introduction programme for new employees, and she will be doing various ad hoc assignments in relation to the oecon study programme in cooperation with Christel B. Mortensen.

Furthermore, she will be doing proof reading, travel reimbursement and other administrative assignments.

This is an interim solution since the TAP group stands before a reorganization which will commence once the new head of department is in place, and Betina will thus get new assignments in connection with this TAP reorganization during the spring.

Betina will primarily be located in office 2632(M) together with Ingrid Lautrup, but she will also be in 2632(M)-228 now and then.

DEPARTMENT CHRISTMAS PARTY ON FRIDAY

95 people have signed up for the Department's Christmas Party on Friday 11 December, so there is basis for a great party.

The party will start at 4 pm and will be held in our lunch room 2632(L)-141.

Don't forget to bring a present (approx. DKK 20) for the the "Pakkeleg".

If you haven't signed up, but would like to come, there is still time - sign up via this link: <https://auws.au.dk/ChristmasParty2015>. The price is DKK 150.

WASTE PAPER BOX COMPETITION

During the past week, we have all received a new box for waste paper as part of a pilot project on efficient waste management.

Many of us got very disappointed when we saw the box on our desk and found out that it was not a Christmas present, and the boxes have been the subject of quite a few discussions in the hallways during the past week.

So what shall we do with these strange boxes? – I have received a couple of suggestions on how to decorate the box or how to use it in the most efficient way - see photos below (patent pending), and there has been a request for a waste paper box competition, so let's see:

Who has the prettiest, funniest or most efficient waste paper box at the Department?

Decorate your box, streamline it, or make it more efficient, take a photo of it and send it to Birgitte Højklint Nielsen: bhoejklint@econ.au.dk no later than Thursday 17 December.

The winner receives a delicious Christmas treat and will be announced in the next issue of ECON News.

Let the competition begin!
