THE PHD CORNER

NETWORKING WITH THE DANES - INTERNATIONALIZE WITH US!

Studenterhus Aarhus and AU are once again organizing the successful Internationalize with (Aarh)us-project, where PhD students and postdocs get a chance to experience Danish culture up close!

In short, the project is a dinner club, where you are offered a Danish contact family. The contact family will be a Danish employee from one of the participating companies and his/her family, who can give you a unique insight into the Danish culture outside academia.

Together, the family and the PhD student/postdoc will hold three dinners, and there will be a visit to the company where one of the family members works.

The project will start with a sign-up event on 3 November.
